

GREAT OUTDOORS WESTERN CAMPOUT

JACKSON HOLE MOUNTAIN RESORT WILL CHANGE YOUR MIND ABOUT THE TIME OF YEAR TO GO TO A SKI AREA!!

Families from throughout the west chosen by their Governors will spend an action-packed day at Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. From the summit to the base, summer time adventures at this ski area capitalize on the beauty of Bridger-Teton National Forest. Across the nation, the Forest Service and its partners are expanding access to national forests and adding new fun.

WHEN: June 13 2016 (Monday) beginning at 9:00 AM and through the afternoon
HOSTS: Great Outdoors Month Partnership®, Jackson Hole Mountain Resort and the USDA Forest Service
WHERE: Jackson Hole Mountain Resort, Teton Village, Wyoming

Participants in the Great Outdoors Western Campout will arrive at 9 AM and take the scenic aerial tram to the mountain top and enjoy “Top of the World” waffles at Corbett’s Cabin. There will be snow on the mountaintop – lots of it. There may be an impromptu incident of snowplay before reboarding the tram to come down the mountain. And then, our families and special guests will enjoy a range of fun opportunities, including: 18 Hole Frisbee Golf Course, Bungee Trampoline, Rope Aerial Adventure Course, a raptors presentation, Climbing Wall, Guided Hiking ... and more! And our active group will be fed delicious lunch while hearing how Congressional action in 2011 cleared the way for kid areas on national forests to become very special gateways to the outdoors year-round.

Invitation only.
