

GREAT OUTDOORS WESTERN CAMPOUT

OPENING EVENT

Celebrate this first-ever gathering of families from throughout the west to celebrate fun in the Great Outdoors. We will marking the Centennial of the National Park Service, the Every Kid in a Park initiative, the proclamation of June as Great Outdoors Month® by the President and all 50 Governors and more.

WHERE: The National Museum of Wildlife Art (www.wildlifeart.org/)
2820 Rungius Road, Jackson, Wyoming 83001

WHEN: June 10, 2016 (Friday) beginning at 6 PM

HOSTS: The Honorable Matthew H. Mead and the Great Outdoors Month Partnership®
With special thanks to the National Wildlife Federation

Join us for a visit to this world-class gallery of wildlife art, including special displays featuring paintings and photographs of several national parks. Our family-focused evening will include great food prepared on Coleman's NPS Centennial grills and delightful desserts and beverages. Kids, especially, will enjoy the outdoor Sculpture Trail, a 3/4 mile walk where changing light and seasons offer a view of art in the wild. The Trail overlooks the National Elk Refuge. Tour Airstream's special Centennial model trailer, providing special support for national park projects. Meet key Jackson-area community leaders and National Park Service, National Forest Service and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service staff responsible for the management of key places in the Jackson Hole region.

Invitation only event.

For more information on the Great Outdoors Western Campout, see <http://www.gowestcampout.com/>